Activity/Project Description:

- Let's Eat concepts are reviewed using illustrated flashcards, room poster, and audio recording,
- Students use increasingly complex vocabulary and sentences to describe eating, serving, and food preparation activities,
- Vocabulary is reinforced with the use of illustrated placemats during meals,
- Students are provided information on traditional cooking/preparation methods and utensils. These lessons will be reinforced during seasonal cultural activities dealing with foods. Kids should know about cooking in a basket, salmon smoking and planking, camas ovens, etc.

> Students compile a list of traditional and contemporary foods they have tried and remember. Foods are rated according to likes/dislikes. Students should create a numeric scale rating system, with a Dee Ni word or phrase assigned to each number. (
